MARD LUCK STILL CLINGS TO THE FLEET-FOG-BOUND ALL DAY IN THE HARBOR OF NEWPORT-AN ACCIDENT TO

THE MARGUERITE.

IBY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBENE. Newport, R. I., Aug. 12.-The fleet of the New-York Yacht Club was fog-bound in the harbor here to-day. Great banks of vapor hung outside of Brenton's Reef and Commodore Morgan did not put the yachts in motion. A light wind blew from the southwest and piled up the fog in a solid wall outside the harbor. Some of the yachts went outside early in order to be on hand at the start. They all saw the fog and came back, except the Marguerwhich stood on until she got into the fog. In attempting to get back to harbor the Marguerite ran on Kettle Bottom Rock. The steam yacht Jean went to the aid of the stranded schooner and tried that a time limit should be placed on the Goelet tives Cummings, Geissenheimer, Meyer, McAlcer, cup races. The Colonia drifted in by Brenton's Reef at 1:28 o'clock this morning. Archibald Rogers, who was on board the Colonia, heard cheer-ing in the direction of the flagship. He stood down toward the May, and hailed her, asking what the cheering was about. He was told that the Vigi-chusetts. Representatives in Congress from Minlant had just passed. In the dense fog the Colonia had been mistaken for the Herreshoff centre- Hall, Kiefer, Fletcher, Bacon, Baldwin and Boen. board. The Pilgrim did not go over the course, Refore the second mark was reached she turned back. Herbert Foster Otis, of Boston, who was board the Pilgrim, met with a painful accident. LAUNCH OF THE NEW COMMERCE-DE-STROYER AT CRAMPS SHIPYARD.

THE LATEST ADDITION TO THE NAVY, NAMED BY MISS WASHBURN, GLIDES INTO THE DELAWARE IN THE PRESENCE OF

CHEERING THOUSANDS. [BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.]

Minneapolis was launched in the presence of thousands of spectators at Cramps' shipyard to-day Miss Lizzie Washburn, daughter of United States Senator Washburn, of Minnesota, named the senator Washburn, of Minnesota, named the graceful hull as she plunged into the Delaware's every decision of the umpire and openly tried flamant waters. It was the fourth launch of a Govern-interference textics ment war-vessel within a year, the others being haul her off the rocks. The Jean was not able the cruiser Columbia and the battleships Indiana pet the Marguerite off, but the tug Maude came and Massachusetts. Many well-known men and to get the Marguerite off, but the tug Maude came along and managed to do it. The schooner came up to the harbor and anchored. Her lead keel is badly twisted and she will have to go into drydock.

It was finally settled this morning that the Colonia won the Goelet Cup for sloops. By a reflected to the table below it will be seen that the synchist which were timed in yesterday's race came yachts which were timed in hone of the most remarkable running to drive the had activities that in this sharped in 0.37, half in 1.14, t Camden, Hale and Stockbridge, and Representa-tives Cummings, Geissenheimer, Meyer, McAleer, Boutelle, Dolliver and Wadsworth; Senator Lodge, Senator Davis, of Minnesota; Senator | Gashey called the game and the score went back to the Cockrell, Congr samen Breckinridge, of Kentucky: nesota present were Messrs, Tawney, McCleary, Invitations had been sent to all the city officials of Minneapolis.

The launch was as successful as all its predecessors at Cramps' have been. There was not a hitch, and when the great hull was released toward the water, and with the cheers of thousands was named in honor of the great Western

There were hundreds upon the Delaware, fleating upon all manner of craft and the steamboats took special excursion parties. All this time the final preparations were being made by a force of 400 men under the direction of Lewis Nixon, the naval constructor and superintendent of construction at Cramps'. When all was ready Charles H. Cramp gave the signal to Miss Washburn, who stepped forward to her place under the sharp prow of the cruiser, which pointed to the westward. Then the workmen be-pointed to the westward. Then the workmen began sawing the sole-pieces and in a few minutes the gigantic frame-began to quiver.

Niss Washburn, with the wine bettle in her hapd, stood ready to do her part, and when with a crashing sound the half-sawed sole-pieces gave way and the first motion was imparted to the hull she broke the bottle into a thousand pieces against the prow and uttered the words "I christen thee Minnespolis!" in a clear voice. Like a catapult the ship leaped from her confines and in thirty seconds the Minneapolis had been launched. A naval salute was fired by Cramps' battery on Peters Island and the launch was over.

CROKER AND MURPHY OPPOSED TO HIM-HILL IS BIDDING FOR "BOSS" M'LAUGHLIN'S AID.

Senator David B. Hill is making the "fight of his life" to secure the nomination of Isaac H. Maynard on the Democratic State ticket this fall for Judge of the Court of Appeals. It has already been decided that the Democratic State Committee shall be called together, either in this city or Saratoga between August 20 and 25, and that the State Con vention shall be convened probably in Saratoga in the latter part of September. One of the main objects of Senator Hill's visit to New-York at this time is to make certain the nomination of Maynard. He has informed his friends that this man's claims have gone too long unrecognized. But for the complications of State with National politics, Mr. Hill Order of Foresters swelled the attendance at the premises, Maynard should have been the Democratic nominee for the place he holds last year.
